

Kindergarten – Science Curriculum

Life Science and Physical Science GLE	Student Friendly Language
LS4:K-2:1.2 Recognize that humans learn from each other in many different ways, such as listening and speaking, watching and imitating.	I can learn by listening, watching and doing what you do.
LS4:K-2:1.4 Recognize that some of the things humans can do, such as playing games, reading, and writing, must be deliberately learned.	I can learn to play games, read, and write.
LS5:K-2:4.1 Recognize that some jobs/careers require knowledge and use of life science content and/or skills.	I know that some people do science for a job.
PS3:K-2:1.2 Describe and demonstrate that things close to the Earth fall to the ground unless something supports them.	I know that things fall down to the ground unless something is holding it up.
PS3:K-2:2.1 Describe the many different ways things can move, such as in a straight line, zigzag or circular motion, back and forth, and fast and slow.	I can name things that can zigzag, go in a straight line, go in circles, move back and forth, and go fast and slow.
PS4:K-2:4.1 Recognize that some jobs/careers require knowledge and use of physical science content and/or skills.	I know that some people do science for a job.